

well as for example
for instance, you
use the phrase
an example of in academic writing.
ing with the
ework is an example
w children can show
ct for their parents.

E. CREATE Choose one of the topics below. Then use your main idea and two or three examples giving short answers.

Topic A: Do you think it is important for children to show respect for their parents? What are some ways they can do this?

Topic B: Should you study the customs of another country before you visit? What are some things you should learn before traveling to another country?

Main idea

I think I should learn the customs of that country before visiting another country.

Supporting idea

I might be rude without learning it.

Supporting idea

It's good experience to experience a different culture.

Supporting idea

F. COMPOSE Write a complete paragraph giving examples. Use your notes from Activity E.

1. Write a topic sentence introducing your idea. Make it clear which topic you chose in Activity E.

I think I should learn the customs of that country before visiting another country.

2. Write two to three supporting sentences introducing examples.

First, I might be rude without learning it.

Second, It's good experience to experience a different culture.

1. B. IDENTIFY Read this post from a website. Circle the subject and underline the verb in each sentence. Then correct the errors in subject-verb agreement.

In my opinion, the most annoying habit is talking on cell phones. People is talking on their cell phones all the time. My brother always interrupt our talk conversations and answer his phone. People like my brother doesn't care answers about manners. People talk on cell phones in restaurants and in doctors' don't care offices. There is times when cell phones are very annoying. Cell phones ring are and interrupts our thoughts. People need to show more respect for others.
interrupt There is appropriate and inappropriate places to use cell phones.
are

- C. IDENTIFY Look back at your paragraph in Activity F on page 68. Check subject-verb agreement. Circle the subject and underline the verb in each sentence.